

Summer Button Treat.....

Craft Leftovers

I have been wanting to make a new summer head wrap for myself for quite some time. Something that buttoned up, something a little lacy, something red and crocheted. This turned out just right and I am so happy to finally get it written up for you. It's the perfect compliment to any summer outfit, whether your hair is long or short, up or down it will look just great and keep those wispy hairs out of your eye when running around outside.

Ingredients:

Cotton worsted weight yarn, Cotton Fleece would work great, I just used some stuff I had laying around though, I think it is just a mercinized cotton

Size J hook or larger

Tapestry needle

3 buttons 3/8" ish

Directions:

Chain 45

Row 1: SC into 2nd ch from hook; sc into each ch to end of row.

Row 2: Turn, ch 1, sc into 1st sc from hook through the back loop, 6 sc through the back loop, dc to the last 8 sc, sc through the back loop to end.

Row 3: Turn, ch 1, sc into 1st sc from hook through the back loop, (skip 1, 3 tr into next sc, skip 1 sc, sc into next sc) repeat 7 times. Sc through the back loop to end (8 sc).

Row 4: Turn, ch 1, sc into 1st st from hook through the back loop, 9 sc through the back loop; (skip 1, 3tr into next tr, skip 1 sc, sc into next tr) repeat 6 times. Sc through the back loop to end.

Cut yarn and pull through loop.

Sew buttons onto one end of the head wrap and you can slip them through the crochet stitches on the other end.

Enjoy!
